

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FIPPA) provides that students 18 years of age and older will determine who will receive information about them and their studies. Under this law, confidential student information cannot be provided to anyone other than the student unless the student has provided written consent.

As mature learners at Wapaskwa Virtual Collegiate, students are tasked with designating individuals who may be contacted concerning their educational progress and related matters.

I, (student) _____, hereby authorize and consent to the release of information held by Wapaskwa Virtual Collegiate, specifically relative to academic standing and attendance. Wapaskwa Virtual Collegiate will not release this information to anyone other than the student or those indicated as follows:
